

DR AJAI CHOWDHRY: A Padma Bhushan awardee, he is one of the six founder-members of HCL. Began an exciting journey more than four decades ago with a dream to give India its very own microcomputer. The sheer clarity of his vision and hard work led to a revolution and laid the foundation for the Indian IT industry, taking India to the league of major economies of the world. He is the Chairman of the Electronics Sector Skills Council and Chairman - FICCI Start up Committee. He is also the Co-Chairman of the Working Group for Development of Innovation and IP in the ESDM sector.

JAGDISH MITRA: As Chief Strategy Officer of Tech Mahindra, he leads the global agenda of business growth driven by strategy, powered by Digital and manifested in brand experiences. He is also responsible for driving the new growth business at Tech Mahindra. In his 25 years of career, he has played many roles spanning across sales, business development and large deals. He has opened many new markets in North America, UK, Middle East, Australia New Zealand and South East Asia apart from India.

SANDEEP AGGARWAL: He is Chairman of Telecom Export Promotion Ministry and the Telecom Committee Chief, PHD Chamber of Commerce. Also serves as Managing Director and Promoter of Paramount Communications Ltd. Has received numerous awards from social, cultural and industry organizations over the past 30 years.

AMIT MARWAH: Head of Marketing & Corporate Affairs at Nokia. He has a diverse background and experience in the field of Management and Technical Sales, including Network Designs and Planning, Engineering and product/project management. Prior to Nokia, he was associated with Huawei, Nokia Siemens Network, Motorola and Lucent Technologies.

ARVIND BALI is CEO of Telecom Sector Skill Council with over 35 years of expertise in management of various business streams. Currently, he is the CEO of the Telecom Sector Skill Council, a non-profit industry driven body set up under the aegis of the NSDC, which strives to create a viable ecosystem for skill development and quality assurance of personnel in the Telecom sector.