The long and the shot of it

A long SHOT

Desmond Nazareth's friends thought he was insane when he decided to make agave-based spirits in India. But as Shikha Kumar finds out, he had the last laugh. And though his product technically cannot be called tequila, it can give the real thing a run for its money

Agave Agave spirits are made from the agave plant, which is native to Mexico. It is a long process, but the result is a smooth, flavorful spirit.

Margarita Margarita is a popular cocktail made with tequila, lime juice, and salt. It is a refreshing drink that is perfect for any occasion.

Cabildean que India reconozca al tequila

Ven potencial de crecimiento importante en esa nación

Arman tequileros gira de negocios al país que ya compra 62 mil litros al año

Jorge Velasco

El tequila busca el reconocimiento en los más de 100 millones de habitantes, que importa al día que vive en India, donde inclusive se ha detectado la presencia de bebidas que imitan el sabor de la fama de la bebida mexicana.

Gran mercado
Con mil 220 millones de habitantes, 65 por ciento de ellos menores de 35 años de edad, India es un gran mercado para las bebidas:

58 millones	1,907 mdd	75%
de importación de bebidas alcohólicas se realizan al año en India.	es el valor de este mercado.	del mercado lo ocupan el whisky, rum y brandy.

15% creció el mercado de bebidas alcohólicas en India en el 2010.

62,114 litros de licor se exportaron a aquel país el año pasado.

150% es el impuesto que paga el licor para ingresar a aquel país.
