

Dr. Shernaz Cama Short CV:-

Dr. Shernaz Cama, Associate Professor, teaches at Lady Shri Ram College, Delhi University. She is Advisor, Fulbright Educational Programme, Executive Council Member, Temple of Understanding, Honorary Research Fellow, College of Humanities, University of Exeter and Member, the Arts and Humanities Research Council, (AHRC), U.K. as well as Member, International Advisory Group of the European Research Council, ERC.

Dr. Cama has edited and authored several books and guided international senior scholars in their research projects. In 1999, Dr. Cama was invited by UNESCO to initiate a project on the Preservation and Promotion of Parsi Zoroastrian Culture and Heritage. As honorary Director of UNESCO Parzor she has guided, and continues to guide, researchers in Parsi Zoroastrian culture and demography in India and abroad.

Dr. Cama has produced several movies for the Parzor project, curated the largest ever exposition on the Zoroastrians in the Everlasting Flame International Programme, 2016, has headed and won the Multinational Candidature for the UNESCO Award, “Masterpieces of the Oral and Intangible Heritage of Humanity”. Dr. Cama has been awarded the Mazda Education Foundation Award and Mancherji Edalji Joshi Memorial Award for Outstanding Contribution to the Zoroastrian community.

Since 2002, Dr. Cama has won several prestigious Awards; in 2018, the Delhi Minorities Commission (DMC), has Awarded Dr. Cama the DMC Award for Exemplary work done in the NGO Sector. In 2022, Dr. Cama was honored by the World Zarthushti Community Service Award for ‘Pioneering Meaningful Change for Social & Humanitarian Causes & Being a Source of Strength in the Community’ at the 12th World Zoroastrian Congress in New York City.